Rear of TV

Basic Connections (Connecting Cable TV or an Antenna)

When connecting an antenna or cables, remove the rear cover of the TV beforehand.

Removing the rear cover

- 1 Hold the lower right (or left) corner of the back cover as illustrated below and pull it towards you. Do the same to the remaining left (or right) corner.

- 2 Hold the bottom edge of the cover with both hands as illustrated and lift upwards.

Attaching the rear cover

Hold the rear cover as illustrated below, fitting the four pegs on the rear cover into the corresponding holes on the TV, then push the rear cover back onto the TV.

Connecting directly to cable or an antenna

VHF only or VHF/UHF or cable

Note

It is strongly recommended to connect the antenna using a 75-ohm coaxial cable to get optimum picture quality. A 300-ohm twin lead cable can be easily affected by radio noise and the like, resulting in signal deterioration. If you use a 300-ohm twin lead cable, keep it away as far as possible from the TV.

Cable box connections

Use this hookup if:

- You subscribe to a cable TV system that uses scrambled or encoded signals requiring a cable box to view all channels, and
- You do not intend to hook up any other audio or video equipment to your TV.

- 1 Connect the coaxial connector from your cable service to the cable box's IN jack.
- 2 Using the supplied 75-ohm coaxial cable, connect the cable box's OUT jack to the TV's VHF/UHF jack.

Also, set "Cable" to "On" in the  (Channel) menu (See page 21).

Tips

- Your Sony remote control can be programmed to operate your cable box (See "Programming the remote control" on page 34).
- To change channels using the cable box, set your TV to channel 3 or 4 depending on the cable box channel output.
- If you will be controlling all channel selection through your cable box, consider using the Channel Fix feature to set your TV to channel 3 or 4 (See page 22).

Connecting the Power Cord

Complete other connections prior to connecting the power cord.

- 1 Connect the power cord to the AC IN connector of the TV.
- 2 Connect the other plug of the power cord to a wall outlet.

Bundling cords and cables

You can organize the cables in the back of the TV.

- 1 Bundle the cables and secure them with the clips on both sides of the TV.

Note

It may not be possible to fasten with clips if cables are too thick.

- 2 Pass the cables through the grooves. Be sure to place the cables inside the tabs at the bottom of the TV.

Note

If all the cables cannot be stored inside, you may leave some of them hanging down on both sides of the TV.

- 3 Gather the cables from both sides together and secure them with the clip at the bottom.

Note

It may not be possible to fasten with clips if cables are too thick.

Note

If the cables are not neatly stored in the grooves, you may not be able to attach the rear cover.

Adjusting the viewing angle of the TV

You can adjust the angle to avoid the reflection of light and get a better view of the TV.

Note

When adjusting the angle, steady the base of the stand with your hand to prevent the TV from becoming separated from the stand. Be careful not to get your fingers caught between the TV and the stand.

“Memory Stick”

About the “Memory Stick”

What is a “Memory Stick”?

A “Memory Stick” is a compact, portable and versatile Integrated Circuit recording medium with a data storage capacity that exceeds that of a floppy disk. A “Memory Stick” is specially designed for exchanging and sharing digital data among “Memory Stick” compatible products. Because it is removable, the “Memory Stick” can also be used for external data storage.

“Memory Stick” media are available in two sizes: a standard size and a compact “Memory Stick Duo” size. Once attached to a Memory Stick Duo adapter, the “Memory Stick Duo” is physically the same size as a standard “Memory Stick” and thus can be used with products compliant with the standard “Memory Stick.”

Tip

The “Memory Stick” feature allows you to view digital images that are stored on “Memory Stick” media on your TV screen.

- * JPEG is a standard technology format for compressing a still image (extension .jpg). JPEG stands for “Joint Photographic Experts Group,” which is the organization that implemented this format.
- ** DCF stands for “Design rules for Camera File systems,” which has specifications established by the Japan Electronics and Information Technology Industries Association (JEITA).
- *** MPEG is a format for compressing a moving image (extension .mpg).
